REMARKS
This is UNEVALUATED Information

1. Between 11 August and 13 September 1955, the barracks installations of the Stendal post were occupied as follows:
 Tauntzien Kaserne (5584): by some 300 soldiers wearing red-bordered black and black-bordered black epaulets, presumably an engineer and an artillery unit<sup>25X1</sup>
 Hindenburg Kaserne (5581): by some 300 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The AAA emplacement south of the installation was still occupied by 6 x 85-mm AA guns;<sup>2</sup>
 Albrecht der Baer Kaserne (5583): by a rear detail of 50 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia.
2. Between 1 and 10 September, the Tauntzien Kaserne <sup>1</sup> and the Albrecht der Baer Kasernen <sup>3</sup> were occupied by rear details; the Hindenburg Kaserne was partially occupied.<sup>2</sup> 25X1
1. Comment. The Tauntzien Kaserne is believed to be occupied by the engineer battalions of the LXXIX Mtz Rifle Corps and the 207th Mtz Rifle Div and the Corps Signal battalion. 25X1
2. Comment. The installation is believed to be occupied by the 594th Mtz Rifle Regt of the 207th Mtz Rifle Div and element of the 693d How Arty Regt of the same division. Only elements of the two regiments were probably stationed at the post. 25X1
3. Comment. The division headquarters and the 16th Gds Tank Regt of the 207th Mtz Rifle Div are assumed to be stationed in the Letzling Heath. 25X1
